For purposes of this opinion letter, we have not reviewed any documents other than the documents listed in paragraphs (a) through (m) above. In particular, we have not reviewed any document (other than the documents listed in paragraphs (a) through (m) above) that is referred to in, or incorporated by reference into, any document reviewed by us. We have assumed that there exists no provision in any document that we have not reviewed that bears upon, is inconsistent with or is contrary to the opinions stated herein. Based upon and subject to the foregoing, and subject further to the assumptions, exceptions and qualifications set forth in this letter, we are of the opinion that:

1. Each GATS Form Delaware Instrument, when duly authorized, executed and delivered (including, with respect to the GATS Form Delaware Instruments, when electronically executed by way of the GATS platform) by the parties thereto, will constitute a legal, valid and binding obligation of the parties thereto, enforceable against each in accordance with their respective terms.

2. The GATS Common Law Trust Instrument, when duly authorized, executed and delivered by the parties thereto, will create a legal and valid common law trust pursuant to the laws of the State of Delaware, and the trust created by the GATS Common Law Trust Instrument (i) will have been duly created for the benefit of the Beneficiary thereunder, and (ii) will have created for the benefit of the Beneficiary the rights and interests in the Trust Estate which the GATS Common Law Trust Instrument by its terms purports to create.

3. The GATS Statutory Trust Instrument, when duly authorized, executed and delivered by the parties thereto, will create a legal and valid “statutory trust” within the meaning of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act, 12 Del.C. c.38 pursuant to the laws of the State of Delaware, and the trust created by the GATS Statutory Trust Instrument (i) will have been duly created for the benefit of the Beneficiary thereunder, and (ii) will have created for the benefit of the Beneficiary the rights and interests in the Trust Estate which the GATS Statutory Trust Instrument by its terms purports to create.

The foregoing opinions are subject to the following exceptions, qualifications and assumptions in addition to those noted above:

A. The foregoing opinions are limited to the laws of the State of Delaware and we have not considered and express no opinion on the effect of, concerning matters involving or otherwise with respect to any other laws of any jurisdiction, or rules, regulations, orders and judicial and administrative decisions relating to such laws, including, without limitation (i) the federal laws of the United States of America, including without limitation, the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended, and the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, (ii) laws, rules and regulations relating to money laundering and terrorist groups (including any requirements imposed under the USA PATRIOT Act of 2001, as amended), (iii) state securities or blue sky laws, including, without limitation, the securities laws of the State of Delaware, (iv) Title 49 of the United States Code Annotated, sometimes referred to as the Transportation Act, which was enacted in substitution of the Federal Aviation Act of 1986 and the regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, as amended from time to time and any similar law of the United States enacted in substitution or replacement thereof, (v) the Convention on International Interests in Mobile Equipment (sometimes referred to as the Cape Town Convention), (vi) the Federal Communications Act of 1934, as amended, (vii) federal or state pension or employee benefit laws and regulations, and (viii) laws applicable to the particular nature of the equipment which is subject to the documents listed herein, and any rules and regulations thereunder. Insofar as the foregoing opinions relate to the validity and enforceability of documents which are expressed to be governed by laws other than the laws of the State of Delaware, we have assumed that such documents constitute legal, valid, binding and enforceable documents or instruments under such laws (as to which we express no opinion).

B. The foregoing opinions, to the extent they address the enforceability of any obligation are subject to (i) applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, receivership, reorganization, fraudulent conveyance and other similar laws relating to or affecting the rights and remedies of creditors generally, (ii) principles of equity (regardless of whether considered and applied in a proceeding in equity or at law), and (iii) the effect of federal or state securities laws and public policy considerations on the enforceability of provisions relating to indemnification or contribution.

C. We have assumed the due incorporation or due formation, as the case may be, due organization, and valid existence in good standing of each of the parties (other than natural persons) to the documents reviewed by us under the laws of all relevant jurisdictions; (ii) the legal capacity of all relevant natural persons, (iii) the due authorization, execution, and delivery of each of the documents (including, with respect to the GATS Form Delaware Instruments, those parties electronically executing by way of the GATS platform) which are the subject of this opinion by each of the parties thereto; and (iv) that each of such parties had and has the power and authority to execute, deliver, and perform such documents.

D. We have assumed that each party that is required to be a “citizen of the United States” within the meaning of Section 40102(a)(15) of Title 49 of the United States Code is in fact such a citizen.

E. Each GATS Form Delaware Instrument will be executed in the same form in all respects as the form provided to us for review and attached as Exhibit A hereto;

F. All consents, approvals, licenses and authorizations of, filings and registrations with, or notices to, any court, arbitrator, governmental authority or third party required under any law or under any organizational or other document binding on any party or its properties, in order for such party to enter into and perform its obligations under any GATS Form Delaware Instrument, will have been obtained, made or given and will have been valid and sufficient for their intended purposes and in full force and effect.

G. Insofar as any obligation provided for or referred to in the GATS Form Delaware Instruments is to be performed in, or by, a party organized under the laws of, any jurisdiction outside the State of Delaware, its performance will not be illegal or ineffective in that jurisdiction by virtue of the law of that jurisdiction.

H. We have assumed that (i) all signatures on all documents which are the subject of this opinion are genuine (including, with respect to the GATS Form Delaware Instruments, those parties electronically executing by way of the GATS platform), (ii) each document which is the subject of this opinion constitutes the entire agreement among the parties thereto with respect to the subject matter thereof, and (iii) except as set forth in the foregoing opinions with regard to the trust, each document which is the subject of this opinion constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of each of the parties thereto, enforceable against each of such parties in accordance with its terms.

I. We have made no investigation of, and express no opinion concerning, the nature of the title to any part of the equipment involved in any transaction subject to the GATS Form Delaware Instruments or the priority of any security or beneficial interest.

J. We have assumed that the GATS Form Delaware Instruments and the transactions contemplated thereby are not within the prohibitions of Section 406 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

K. In addition to any other limitation by operation of law upon the scope, meaning or purpose of this opinion, this opinion speaks only as of the date hereof. We have no obligation to advise the recipient of this opinion (or any third party) of changes of law or fact or to any of the GATS Form Delaware Instruments that may occur after the date hereof, even though the change may affect the legal analysis, a legal conclusion or any information contained herein.

The opinions expressed in this letter are solely for the use of the Aviation Working Group, and solely for informational purposes, in matters directly related to the GATS

Form Delaware Instruments, and they may not be relied on by any other persons or for any other purpose without our prior written approval; provided, however, that this opinion may be disclosed to, but not relied upon by, and nor does it create any legal rights in favor of, any members of the Aviation Working Group or any other person. The opinions expressed in this letter are limited to the matters set forth in this letter and no other opinions should be inferred beyond the matters expressly stated. We assume no responsibility or liability to any person in receipt of this opinion (including the Aviation Working Group or any of its members) and we disclaim absolutely all such responsibility and liability.
